FOREWORD

The Innitou

The title, The Innitou, is significant of the theme portrayed throughout the book. Before the advent of the white man, Horn Pond was one of the more frequented camping sites of the Indians. The Great Spirit, Manitou, who was believed to dwell on the mountain which bore his name, delighted in gazing at his image reflected in the sparkling waters below. Thus, the name Innitou, meaning "looking glass," was derived.

The Innitou reflects our memories of school, friends, and activities throughout our three years in high school.

Dedicated . . . to our parents

Dear Parents,

Graduation Day, 1957

For most of us high school graduation marks the completion of our formal schooling. Our future will be what we make it. However, tomorrow can bring only the results of the values which we recognize today.

You, perhaps more than any other persons who influence our lives, give us an awareness of our basic worth. It is, therefore, with a sense of deep pride and affection that we include you in this happy day by dedicating the 1957 Ianniton to you, the parents of the graduating class.

Lovingly,

Your sons and daughters of

The Class of 1957

J. FRANK HASSETT

Our Superintendent Speaks

MESSAGE TO THE GRADUATING CLASS

You are one of the thousands of graduating classes throughout the length and breadth of our land. From among you will come the statesmen, the scientists, the philosophers, the teachers, the doctors, and the religious leaders who will decide the destiny of the world for the next fifty years or more. The responsibility seems frightening in the face of today's precarious world situation, but it is also a tremendous and inspiring challenge.

Many of the older generation have grown weary of the struggle. Your efforts in working toward the ultimate goal of a peaceful world with freedom for all peoples will be similar to a transfusion of fresh new blood to a tired soldier. Your faith, high ideals, and courage, coupled with your innate abilities, will make an invincible weapon against ignorance and tyranny.

The only danger we face is that of Youth's becoming lackadaisical and indifferent; of each underestimating his own importance in the General Plan. Let me say in the words of Father Keller, "You CAN change the world." You must not feel that you have finished your education upon leaving High School. You must keep on learning and developing your native talents. You must start early to take an active interest in community, civic, and national affairs, contributing new ideas wherever possible. Yours is a tremendous task, but you have the youth, courage, and faith in God to face it.

As we watch you leave the Woburn High School this June of nineteen hundred fifty-seven with a strong feeling of hope for your future and that of the whole world, we say, "God bless you."

To The Class of 1957

To the Class of 1957:

The Yearbook of the Class of 1957 is a tribute to the efforts of the staff, the skillful guidance of the assisting faculty, and the co-operation of the members of the graduating class. The associations of your high school days, the activities of your class, and the purpose of the school will always remain fresher in your memory because you carefully prepared this permanent pictorial record.

The great challenge of the Woburn High School is to prepare pupils for their roles in our American society. From the relatively simple and well-defined community in the early days of the school to the increasingly complex world of an atomic age, the Woburn High School has endeavored through an organic development of its curriculum to meet the challenge.

On the eve of graduation in June, 1957, we are asked to rededicate ourselves to the attitudes and ideals which the school has stressed, and which have made our country the beacon light of freedom in a world beset by anxiety and crisis.

It is the prayerful wish of the Woburn High School that each member of this graduating class has been prepared by the activities and associations which this book records to make his maximum contribution to the general welfare and attain his personal happiness in America's golden future.

In Memoriam

Shipley W. Ricker
1892-1956

Born in South Berwick, Maine, on January 3, 1892, Mr. Ricker was graduated from Bowdoin College with the Class of 1906. A practical philosopher of quiet, friendly manner, he assumed the duties of a chemistry and physics instructor at Woburn High School in 1918. In 1920 he was appointed as a sub-master of our high school which position he held at the time of his death.

His many friends among the faculty, student body and alumni of Woburn High School share with Mrs. Ricker and his son the deep loss of a beloved teacher, a devoted husband and father, and a loyal friend.

On September 4, 1956, the doors of Woburn High School opened for registration of Seniors, Juniors and Sophomores. In a few short weeks we became one happy family as you may see.

CLASS SONG

As We Leave

Mary Ellen Carton

We've spent these years together,
Through laughter and tears, together,
Shared all our fears together,
And now we part
With thoughtful hearts.

We leave Woburn High forever,
Our thoughts ne'er will die forever,
Our future now starts
But in all of our hearts,
We always will be together.

Vickie's words will be preserved for posterity.

CLASS POEM

Companionship

by Victoria Woods

The dear companionship of friends
Gives life its wonted zest,
No day can dreary be that sends
One friend to bless the man who spends
His strength without a rest.

But extra joyous is that day,
And gone too soon, alas,
In which he meets upon the way
Himself, a stranger, and bids him stay,
A friend, who will not pass.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Janet's idea meets with Mary's approval but Carl and Harold seem hesitant.

Representatives from each homeroom and organization are elected each year by the pupils to be members of the Student Council. Through these representatives all students have a voice in school affairs.

With the help of Mr. O'Donnell, our faculty adviser, the council sponsored many assemblies and social affairs, financed by dues of the student body. The biggest financial and social event was the Booster Dance held in November.

To obtain membership in the National Honor Society a student must maintain a "B" average and possess qualities of high character and leadership. The great increase in membership shows clearly the students' growth of interest in scholarship, one of the main purposes of this group.

The Woburn Chapter of the National Honor Society of Secondary Schools is capably supervised by Mr. Connolly, Miss Soles, Mr. Horrigan, and Mr. Ring.

Elaine, Paul, Bobby, and Brendan are delighted to answer questions on scholarship.

STUDENT REPRESENTATIVES To Rotary and Woman's Club

Carl explains the advantages of Rotary while the girls wait their turn to praise the Woman's Club.

To be invited into the world of adults is the cherished dream of every teen-ager. Each year on recommendation of the faculty and the principal, two boys from the Junior Class are selected to attend the weekly meetings of the Rotary Club during the Student's Senior Year.

For a number of years also, Woburn High School has been represented at the weekly meetings of the Woburn Woman's Club by a group of girls chosen from among the honor students. It has been their privilege to act as a liaison between the youth of the school and the adults of their city.

Boys from the three classes are encouraged to join this group who lend their assistance at all school activities. One of their outstanding deeds this year was the help given to the Seniors on their city-wide canvas for yearbook patrons.

The boys exchange ideas before the meeting begins.

TANNER NEWS

Nancy has excellent kibitzers in Williom, Ernie and Paul.

The Tanner News, our prize-winning newspaper, was published four times during the school year and was distributed to the students before vacations. With Ernest Coakley as Editor-in-Chief, the newspaper gave full coverage to the activities and features concerning our school life. The three classes were represented on the staff. Miss Brady, Mr. Flaherty, and Mr. Walsh assisted our faculty adviser, Mr. Connolly.

Ernest explains the corrections to his assistants, but Carol seems to be the only one worried.

ORCHESTRA

This school year found the members of the orchestra upholding their record of the past by contributing to many of our social affairs. In keeping with an old tradition, they furnished the background music for the seniors' annual Class Play, Class Day, and Graduation ceremonies. They also performed at many school assemblies. Mr. Kimball deserves much credit for their excellent performances.

JUNIOR RED CROSS

This year the Junior Red Cross has brought joy and happiness to many children in hospitals with dolls dressed by the members of this group. Most of the outfits were hand made by the girls. They also have made birthday boxes for February, party boxes for April, and tray favors for June which were sent to nearby Veterans' Hospitals. The able director behind this organization is Miss Soles.

The girls display some of their handiwork for Christmas gifts.

Since our student body has been keenly interested in the yearbook, the staff has made this edition more inclusive. Under the guidance of Miss Margaret Burke assisted by Miss Catherine Burke and Miss Doris Lynch, it has proved a full-time job, but it has also been a never-to-be-forgotten experience.

Stretching the dollar, planning lay-outs, scheduling re-takes, checking and rechecking copy, burning the midnight oil to meet deadlines, and all the other horrible nightmares faded into the past as we distributed The 1957 Innitou to the seniors without cost at the June banquet sponsored by the staff.

Vicki and Debbie check files against Helen's list.

Kay must be a rapid typist if she can keep six girls busy proofing her copy.

Peter, Judy, and Jerry seem satisfied with the report on the funds that have been raised for publishing their book.

It's quite a task for Billy, Charleen and Dickie to decide which pictures will serve their purposes best.

CROSS COUNTRY

The Cross Country team has enjoyed one of its best seasons this year. Due to the leadership of Captain Dennis O'Donnell and the expert coaching of Mr. McGovern, the team earned many titles and won all their meets.

The varsity won the Puritan Divisional Championship, came in third in Class C, and placed fifth in the eighteen team Middlesex League. The Junior Varsity won the Puritan Championship also, and it placed second in the Middlesex League.

Oakie as captain-elect, flanked by Donnie and Dickie, and Dennis as captain, flanked by Bobbie and Jerry, take time out to pose.

Great spirit and sportsmanship were shown by this year's football team. The team was skillfully led by Captain Bill Spolidoro and Coaches Paul Dorrington and Walter White. Outstanding plays were completed by Joe McGilvray and Bob Lampher.

The highlight of the season was the annual Thanksgiving game with Winchester. Although our boys outplayed the Winchester team, the Sachems managed to beat us by one point.

The Band, directed by Mr. Kimball, has done much to enliven school spirit. New formations and music added greatly to the interest of spectators at the football games. Its performances at school assemblies, parades, concerts, and many other activities were also excellent.

It is composed of students from Junior and Senior High and is an organization of which the school may be justly proud.

JUNIOR PROMENADE

A Mardi Gras theme in pastel colors set the mood for the Junior Prom on May 4, 1956. This was the outstanding event of our junior year and proved to be one of the most enjoyable. The capable committee of Shirley, Brendan, Paul, and Elaine lived up to the expectations of their classmates and faculty advisers. Jack Hennessey's orchestra played throughout the evening.

memorable social event

This evening will be a pleasant memory throughout the years. The untiring efforts of the committee helped to make this evening an outstanding one. The committee, Doris, Shirley, Jimmy, and Dave, worked long and hard to make the dance the success that it was. The theme of this memorable dance was a French Evening Party.

The ushers look as if they are enjoying themselves.

THE RED HOUSE MYSTERY

The Senior Class Play is one of the most outstanding events of the year. The cast was chosen after a series of tryouts by a committee of teachers. This year's cast presented a mystery in three acts. Under the direction of Mr. Edson Kimball, the cast, stage hands and mistress of properties spent many hours rehearsing to make this play a top production.

FOND MEMORIES

We may have said that school was a grind, but was it? Remember the excitement of our dances, the fun of gossiping in the corridors, and the couples that had one more word to say before class? Remember the long hours of practice before the games and play rehearsal before opening night? Remember our Commencement Week? Was this ever called a grind?

Realizing the many financial demands that are made upon the merchants and the citizens of Woburn, we appreciate fully the sacrifices which they have made on our behalf.

SHOPPING FOR A JOB?

CHECK WHAT YOU WANT:

- Good starting salary with regular raises*
- Pleasant work with other girls and young men*
- Prestige of a responsible job with a well-known and respected company*

If your list shows three checks, then you should check into what the Telephone Company has to offer you. Smart girls are doing it now, before they graduate from high school. Come in and see our employment interviewer soon. You'll enjoy talking with her.

Act now, and you can say with pride, "I'm all set! I'm going to work with the Telephone Company!"

See the Guidance Counselor at your school, and talk first with her about when and where to apply.
